

Spotlight on Safeguarding Adults: Sharing the latest guidance

Thursday 21 November 2019

Sense TouchBase Pears, Birmingham

9.30 – 10.00	Arrival, coffee and networking
10.00 – 10.15	Welcome and introduction Professor Todd Landman, Pro-Vice Chancellor, University of Nottingham
10.15 – 11.15	Recognising modern slavery and exploitation in social care Dr Alison Gardner, Research Fellow, University of Nottingham & Jason Grove, West Midlands Regional Modern Slavery Coordinator
11.15 – 11.45	Refreshment break
11.45 – 12.15	Roundtable discussions
12.15 – 1.00	Transforming Care Sir Norman Lamb, MP
1.00 – 1.45	Lunch
1.45 – 2.45	Safeguarding and the Charity Commission Catherine Edginton, Senior Safeguarding Lead

2.45 – 3.45 We Matter Too! Findings from research looking at domestic abuse and people with learning disabilities

Anita Franklin, Professor of Childhood Studies, University of Portsmouth

Sarah Goff, Safeguarding Disabled Children Manager, Ann Craft Trust

3.45 – 4.00 Summary & final thoughts

Dr Deborah Kitson, CEO, Ann Craft Trust

4.00 Ann Craft Trust AGM

Please note, all sessions will include a presentation, time for questions and an opportunity for round table discussions.

The programme is accurate at the time of publication and may be subject to change.