

We Matter Too

Monday 9 December 2019

The Orchard Hotel, University of Nottingham

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 10.00- 10.30 | Arrival, registration & networking |
| 1030 – 10.35 | Welcome and introduction |
| 10.35 – 11.40 | The We Matter Too Project: Key findings & recommendations This session will include roundtable discussions, focusing on the implications and challenges for your services Sarah Goff, Ann Craft Trust & Professor Anita Franklin, University of Portsmouth |
| 11.40 – 12.00 | Refreshment break |
| 12.00 – 12.45 | Understanding the needs of survivors of domestic abuse This session will include the opportunity to discuss to what extent is your organisation responding to the needs of survivors with disabilities Fay Maxted, CEO Survivors' Trust |
| 12.45 - 1.30 | Lunch |
| 1.30 – 1.40 | Deborah Kitson CEO, Ann Craft Trust |

- 1.40 – 2.10 An introduction to the Mental Capacity Act
Laura Thorpe, Safeguarding Adults Manager, Ann Craft Trust
- 2.10–2.30 Refreshment break
- 2.30 – 3.30 Beverley Lewis House: The service provided, needs and challenges
Lisa Scivetti, Beverley Lewis House & Sarah Hellawell, Positive Behaviour Support Lead, L&Q Group
- 3.30–4.30 Recommendations for practice; We Matter Too
Sarah Goff, Ann Craft Trust & Professor Anita Franklin, University of Portsmouth

The programme is accurate at the time of publication and may be subject to change.