

Safeguarding Adults Forum for Lead Officers of Umbrella bodies working in the Sport and Activity Sector

Purpose of the group

To provide an opportunity for those who work in the wider sport and activity sector with a remit to safeguard adults to stay up to date with best practice.

Objectives of the Group

The forum aims to:

- Remain up to date with sector news and developments
- Share good practice regarding keeping adults safe
- Provide a peer support environment
- Learn and develop and share resources with the sector.
- Be a voice for the sector

This will be achieved by:

- Inviting guest speakers to present on specialist topics
- Providing up to date safeguarding in adult sector information
- Providing a virtual meeting space 4 times a year
- Encouraging the sharing of best practice
- Including an element of CPD
- Introducing a scenario to discuss at each forum meeting
- Active participation in developing resources for the sector.

Membership of the group

This Forum is for those taking the lead for adult safeguarding in umbrella organisations that are not an Active Partnership or already part of the NGB LSO network recognised by Sport England.

- The group is open to individuals from umbrella sport and activity organisations who have a lead role in safeguarding adults.
- Group members should be willing to discuss, challenge and drive the work of the group forward
- Individuals should fully endorse the concept of #saferculturesafersport
- Individuals agree to the values of the Ann Craft Trust
